

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS BUDGET

Election, Law Joint Committee Proceeding With Care.

A SUIT AGAINST DR. KILGO

Rev. T. J. Gattis Charges the President and Some of the Trustees of Trinity College With Slander - Proposed Textile School - The Penitentiary Farm Matter - To Domesticate Foreign Corporations.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Raleigh, N. C., January 20.-The progress of matters in regard to the Louisiana election law is being closely watched here. The special joint legislative committee on constitutional amendments will take every step with great care as regards the limitation of the suffrage. Senator Pritchard has let it be known that he will fight that amendment and make a test. Then, too, it is freely said, the measure must run the gauntlet of the North Carolina Supreme Court, one justice being particularly doubtful of its constitutionality. Whatever is done will be well done. Of that the white men in North Carolina may feel assured.

It was a matter of some interest to hear a well-known Confederate veteran say that while of all things the idea of the Federal Government paying any pensions to the Confederates was the most absurd, yet a large proportion of the veterans would be glad to have a pension in that way.

DR. KILGO SUED FOR SLANDER.

There is a new feature in the Trinity College-Clark-Kilgo-American Tobacco Company trouble. Rev. T. J. Gattis, a Methodist preacher at Oxford, instituted suit against Rev. Dr. John C. Kilgo for slander. Some of the trustees of Trinity College are also included in the suit.

PROPOSED TEXTILE SCHOOL.

The arguments for the establishment of a State textile school are very strong. The mills need experts. Now they have to go out of the State to learn. The great machine works will stock the school with all needed machinery, as they did Clemson College, S. C., where there is a flourishing textile school. North Carolina now spins 326,000 bales of cotton, and in the cotton mills 20,000 operatives make an average of $5 a week wages. It is the testimony of experts that the mills raise the price of cotton in this State 1/4 cent per pound.

PENITENTIARY FARM MATTERS.

It is learned to-day that none of the three farm supervisors designated by Superintendent Day to take charge of the convict farms has yet taken charge. Two of the old ones will make a fight against dismissal. One, McCaskey, who led in the fight, went back to a farm to-day. All the negro guards at the farm, as well as at the penitentiary, have been dropped. The old supervisors are called on to pay board for their families for a year or more past.

DOMESTICATING FOREIGN CORPORATIONS.

There are now four bills before the Legislature to force foreign corporations to become "domesticated" in North Carolina. There were five, those of them exactly alike, but one has been dropped. There is grave doubt as to the constitutionality of any such measure. They are almost entirely aimed at railroads and people here say pretty openly who proposed them. Three of these bills, as intended, were exactly like a bill which was introduced by Senator George Butler, in 1897, and which died in committee.

Deputy Revenue Collector Satterfield yesterday captured a large illicit distillery near Durham.

TO-DAY'S LEGISLATION.

Bills were introduced in the House to-day incorporating the East Tennessee and Western North Carolina Railway from Cranberry to Lincoln and the Beaufort and Pamlico Railway from Pamlico river to some point on Neuse river.

Dudley Paul, Republican, from Pamlico county, was unseated and George Dess, Democrat, given the seat.

The House passed bills to place the North Carolina Railway and the Atlantic and North Carolina Railway in the hands of the Democrats, taking the control from the Governor, the fusion Legislature having placed it entirely in his hands. The bill provides for election by the Legislature of a Board of Public Improvement of nine members, and repeals the law which makes the Governor the chairman of that board, and gives him the power to appoint the other two members, and also repeals the law which allows the Governor to appoint State proxy for each road, and puts these appointments in the hands of the Board of Public Improvements.

A bill was introduced in the Senate to provide for enlarging and deepening the Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal. A resolution was tabled requesting North Carolina Senators and Representatives in Congress to vote to ratify the peace treaty with Spain and to labor for local self government for newly acquired territory.

CONVICTED OF MURDER.

Millard Moore, a white convict, was convicted here this evening of murdering Guard Shaw. He will to-morrow morning receive the death sentence.

ELIZABETH CITY.

LOCATION OF POSTOFFICE-NARVAL RESERVES-DEATH-SALE.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Elizabeth City, N. C., Jan. 20.-The important question agitating the citizens of our town now, is where will the postoffice be located. A great many say it will be moved to the Layden's store, on Road street, and the people of the business part of the town will then have quite a distance to go for their mail. The waiting room of the old Albemarle Hotel would be a very desirable place and would be satisfactory to one and all. It is suggested.

About twenty-five of the Naval Reserve boys engaged in shooting at a target yesterday for a turkey, which was kindly donated by Mr. James B. Blades. Mr. Sam Cartwright won, he making twelve points, with Mr. A. J. Davis a close second, and J. W. Dawson third. The Reserves will have a dress drill at the Armory Monday and Friday nights, and after the drill is over Mr. W. T. Olds will give all who wish to indulge in the pleasures of the dance the opportunity to do so.

Miss Bettie Sawyer, who has been employed as seamstress by Mrs. Johnny & Fearing, on Riverside avenue, died to-day, aged about 40 years.

Mr. Fred T. Horton, returned from Norfolk to-day, sick.

Mr. John White yesterday left his store, on Polindexter street, for his dinner, and on his return there was in waiting, to his surprise, a man to buy him out. Mr. White then turned over his stock to Mr. T. H. Williams for a certain price.
